

Information for Swiss Investors

Aquamarine Fund Inc. may not be distributed in or from Switzerland to non-qualified investors. Accordingly, distribution and acquisition of the fund is only admissible if and to the extent you are deemed a Qualified Investor pursuant to Article 10 Paragraph. 3-3ter of the Swiss Federal Collective Investment Schemes Act (CISA).

High net worth individuals may opt-in to the status of a Qualified Investor if, at the time of the investment, they meet the requirements of Article 6-6a of Swiss Federal Collective Investment Schemes Ordinance (CISO), summarised here:

Option 1: Eligible net assets worth at least CHF 5 million; or Option 2: Eligible net assets worth at least CHF 500'000 and relevant personal education or professional / financial experience which enable an understanding of the investment risk.

The published content is neither a recommendation nor a proposal to buy, hold or sell the respective investment product or to execute any other transaction or legal act. It is exclusively for personal use and for information purposes only. The provided content does not represent a recommendation to invest, nor characterize any form of advice. Before investing please carefully read the legal and other fund documents as well as any others required according to local regulations and laws.

By agreeing to the legal references here, you confirm that you are a Qualified Investor according to the Swiss Federal Collective Investment Schemes Act (CISA).
